MISSOURI MISSIONS

Lori was not expected to stay at the Missouri Baptist Children’s Home. The 14 year-old was a victim of human trafficking. She was addicted to drugs, had not been in school consistently for several years, and was extremely aggressive. When she became a resident of MBCH’s Freedom 43:19 program, however, staff members started praying for her and showing her God’s love. Rather than run away, Lori surprised everyone by staying. After several months, Lori is now drug-free, on the honor roll at school, and no longer displaying aggression. She actively participates in weekly therapy sessions and is learning how the Lord offers freedom and healing. She talks about God, while staff members continue to pray that she will ask Jesus into her life.

The Missouri Missions Offering helps children who feel they have no hope, find God’s love.
