WORSHIP SERVICE

You will want to be here at 6 pm this evening for a combined worship service with Heritage Baptist Church in preparation for the Worldview Conference in October.

FATHERS

Satan's proposals always begin with a feint, a false lead, a lie, some subtle twist to the truth which, if acted upon, would tear us away from God, and, if followed to the end, would terminate us. His proposals rarely seem evil—our minds are repelled by obvious evil—more often they come under the guise of good. Satan adds a tincture of grace and beauty to every lure lest we recognize its lethal toxicity. It's very easy to be taken in.

We must meet every one of Satan's lies with truth—meet it when it first enters our minds. Thomas a Kempis said, "Temptations are more easily overcome if they are never allowed to enter. Meet them at the door as soon as they knock, and do not let them in."
