Trafficking Facts:

St. Louis is 4th in the US in children being trafficked—tied with New York City.

Kansas City is fifth; tied with Los Angeles.

There are 100,000 to 300,000 underage girls being sold for sex in America.

The average age of American victims is 12-14 years old.

1 out of 3 teens on the street will be lured toward prostitution within 48 hours of running away from home.

Minor victim are sold an average of 10-15 times a day; 6 days a week.

They are considered a disposable commodity.

Isaiah 43:19 "Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert."

FATHERS

Charles Williams has said of the Lord's Prayer, "No word in English carries a greater possibility of terror than the little word 'as' in that clause." What makes the "as" so terrifying? The fact that Jesus plainly links our forgiveness by the Father with our forgiving-ness of fellow human beings. Jesus' next remark could not be more explicit: "If you do not forgive men their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins."
